Comments from Resident Council of Golden Key Apartments:

We, the members of the Resident Council of Golden Key Apartment endorse the 5 Year Plan of the Jackson Housing Authority. We understand that you will continue to make improvements at our complex to make us feel proud to be residents of the Jackson Housing Authority.

Comments from Vickie Stanford, Whiterock Apartments, Apt. 18-B:

The meeting I attended on 3/31/00 at the main office, Jackson Housing Authority, was inspiring. All the issue mentioned were explained to my understanding very well. All of my questions were answered. I just wished more of the tenants could have been there to hear what was offered and a lot of their questions would have been answered also. I feel that with the funds (allocated) for improvement or reconstruction, the tenant would have no reason to be ashamed to say, I live in Whiterock Apartment. Thinking about when I first moved into Whiterock Apartments I would always hear people say negative things, which made me kind of unsure about living there until I had my own experience. The minor improvements are moving at a slow pace, but also have been explained. Why? Which is funds and manpower. From what Dr. Johnson has explained for Whiterock Home Apartments for the future should be very rewarding if and when the funds are granted. In the meantime results are being shown with improvements such as tenants receiving new appliances, doors within the apartments and bath rooms being redone or renovated. These are immediate issues he has put into action until (Hope VI application is made and approved.)

Comments from the Resident Advisory Council:

The Resident Advisory Board of the Jackson Housing Authority which represents residents living at Whiterock, Willow Grove and Golden Key Apartments has reviewed the Jackson Housing Authority's Five Year Plan and we are pleased with this document. We, (Sandra Gray, President of Willow Grove Resident Council, Ironica Woodruff, President of Whiterock Resident Council and Reverend Amos Taylor, President of Golden Key Apartments) are looking forward to working with the Jackson Housing Authority and its staff in improving the lives, the safety, and housing for its residents and families.
